REAL AMERICAN "SQUEEZER" PLAYING CARDS,

Best quality, of the strongest material, and being highly finished on both sides, they slip readily when handled.

An important feature is that by reference to the "INDICATORS" in the corners all chance of making a mistake in the hand is avoided, as such "Indicators" show the Suit and Size. This allows of the hand being compressed into a very small space, and hence the name "SQUEEZERS." The "Indicators" are in addition to the ordinary pipes made to run both ways.

TREACHER'S GINGER ALE, is highly aromatic and pleasingly pungent to the palate; the various ingredients of which it is composed are proportioned to a nicety, and the utmost care and cleanliness (as with all our Aerated Waters) are exercised in its production.

TREACHER'S LIME-ADE, is a delicious carbonated preparation of the Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice, an antiscorbutic, blood-purifying drink of superior character ranking as a companion to our much admired Ginger Ale. It is cooling and refreshing at all times, healthful and suited to the present season, and being of full citricity and flavour is palatable and agreeable both as a medicinal agent and as a beverage.

TREACHER'S SODA AND POTASH WATERS, are by the aid of steam power charged with Gas at the greatest possible pressure, and thereby rendered sparkling and agreeable in the highest degree.

TREACHER'S TONIC WATER, is unequalled for delicacy of flavour and tonic properties, each bottle containing a definite quantity of Quinine presented in an agreeable form.

TREACHER'S LEMONADE AND GINGERADE, are as flavoured waters celebrated for their freshness and delicious taste.

TREACHER'S AERATED WATER, is thoroughly impregnated with Carbonic Acid Gas, and being free from alkali, it is well adapted for admixture with Claret and Acid Wines. Alone it drinks sharper to the palate and with greater pungency than Soda Water.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 5.

THE London telegrams of yesterday's date report very few changes. Consols are still quoted at 99¼ and French Rentes at 119. Indian Government Securities are unaltered at 78½ for Fours and 85½ for Fours-and-a-half. In the Mincing Lane markets quotations are the same as on Thursday. In Oil Seeds, Rape is firm at a partial advance of 6d. per quarter, and Linseed also shows signs of improvement. The Skin sales closed with a fair demand, but no change in prices.

In Metals, a further decline of 10s. per ton is reported in Hard Spelter.

The market for Piece Goods in Manchester yesterday was quiet, but steady at previous prices. The May shipments of Goods and Yarns for the East show a marked falling off to Bombay, but on the other hand a considerable increase to Calcutta and also to Madras.

In Liverpool the Cotton market closed firm with sales 8,000 bales, of which 600 bales were Surats, which were steady, both on the spot and to arrive, at Thursday's quotations. Mid. Uplands was quoted 1-16d. per lb. higher on the spot and 1-32d. per lb. higher for delivery during the present month. The market to-day has been firm at yesterday's prices, the day's sales amounted to 8,000 bales, of which 500 bales were Surats. The quotations for Americans, to arrive, show a further advance of 1-32d. per lb. To-day's New York telegrams quote Mid. Upland at 11¼ cents per lb., an advance of 1-16, and Futures have advanced from 11·60 to 11·82 cents per lb. The day's Receipts at the U. S. ports were 2,000 bales against 800 bales last year. The week's figures are not to hand.

The following is our usual weekly comparison of the position of Cotton, from which it will be seen that the total visible supply is reduced by 80,000 bales, while that of Surats is increased by 13,000 bales and the East Indian afloat by 16,000 bales. These figures are now of little importance, as the future of the market depends almost entirely upon the accounts of the growing American Crop. During the coming week we should receive the first report of the Washington Agricultural Bureau respecting Crop prospects.

BAR SILVER in London yesterday was unchanged at 52s. 3-16d. per oz.

STERLING EXCHANGE.—Rates opened here this morning firm at an advance of 1-32d. on yesterday's closing quotations for Home Paper, but Bank Bills are unchanged. As usual on mail day there has not been much doing. Telegrams from Calcutta report the market there quiet but unchanged. We quote :—

Bank Bills, on demand		...1s. 8 1-32d.	per Rs.

Francs	3 do.	...2·14	„

On Calcutta demand drafts are quoted at premium, and 60 days' sight bills ⅛ discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER.—The market is steady, but there are rather more sellers to-day at yesterday's quotations of Rs. 100¼ for Fours-and-a-half and Rs. 94¼ for Fours.

SHARES.—Bank of Bombay shares keep steady and are quoted Rs. 5 higher. In Land Companies the only change is a drop of Rs. 10 in Colabas. Press shares are firm at an advance of Rs. 25 in Alberts of Kurrachee and Rs. 5 in New Indian. For Spinning and Weaving Companies there is still a good demand, Coorlas have advanced Rs. 10, Jewraz Balloo Rs. 5, Morarjees Rs 15, and Nationals and Sholapore Rs. 5 per share.

COTTON.—The improved accounts from Liverpool have caused increased strength in this market which has been very steady to-day, and dealers have been asking an advance of Rs. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy. Very little has been done, however, as in addition to its being mail day, there are unmistakeable signs that the monsoon is close at hand, and buyers are naturally averse of entering into fresh engagements. The arrivals from up-country yesterday amounted to 5,500 bales. We quote :—

SEEDS.—There is an active enquiry for Linseed at Rs. 6-8 per cwt, and Guzerat Rapeseed is in good demand at Rs. 6-2 per cwt, in addition to the improvement in the Home markets cheap freights allow of higher prices being paid.

FREIGHTS.—There has been rather a steadier feeling to-day for Liverpool via Canal at 38s. 9d. per ton, via Cape rates are weak at 41s. 3d. per ton. For Havre via Canal relets are offering at 42s. 6d. For Trieste and Venice rates are steady at 47s. 6d. to 50s, fright paid here at par, and for Marseilles and Genoa at 37s. 6d. to 40s. per ton.

IMPORTS.—Our markets for Piece Goods and Yarns keep very quiet, but fairly steady.

COALS are firm with very few sellers; a cargo of Cardiff, June-July sailing via Cape, has been placed at Rs. 19 per ton.

OFFICIAL CHANGES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 5.

It is rumoured that the following official changes are likely to take place :—The Hon'ble Rivers Thompson takes six months' leave, and Mr. Aitchison from British Burma officiates for him. Mr. Bernard, vice Mr. Aitchison, to Chief Commissionership of Burma, Mr. Hume acting Secretary to Home Department. Mr. Monteith, Director General of the Postal Department, goes immediately on furlough to Europe, preparatory to his retirement from service, Mr. Hogg succeeding.

THE OCCUPATION OF AFGHANISTAN.

ALLAHABAD, JUNE 6.

The impression that an immediate move of our army to India is impending is, the Pioneer's correspondent is assured on the best authority, a mistaken one. There is no intention of the army remaining at Kabul over the winter, but the month in which it will leave up to October is altogether uncertain. So far as is at present known the Government do not wish to leave the country in a state of anarchy when the order to march back to India is finally given.

Sirdar Hasan has failed up to the present to move the collection of men at Ghazni to action on Musa Jan's behalf.

Mahomed Jan, with whom there are said to be several hundred Waziris, is now at Killa, with Sultan Mahomed.

Supplies are coming in more freely to Brigadier General Baker.

By order of Abdul Rahman posts have been established between Khanabad and Kabul.

THE REBELLION IN BURMA.

MADRAS, JUNE 5.

A special telegram to the Madras Mail from Rangoon, dated the 4th inst., announces that the rebellion has collapsed. The raiders have dispersed and sought refuge in British territory. The leaders are supposed to be hiding in Mobounng village outside the frontier. All is quiet in Mandalay.

THE RANGOON COMMISSARIAT CASE.

The two Madras commissariat clerks are released on bail. The Recorder declines to try the commissariat cases.

AN UNTRUE STATEMENT.

SIMLA, JUNE 6.

The statement made by the Times of India's military correspondent, in a London letter, that Major Newmarch had written home last year or before the elections mentioning that his war estimate had been reduced by the Government of India is authoritatively characterized as a pure invention. No such communication was ever made, nor did such an event happen.

AFFAIRS AT HERAT.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

SIMLA, JUNE 5.

KANDAHAR, JUNE 4.—News from Herat states that the march on Kandahar is postponed. Abdul Khan Nasiri had gone to assemble Charaimak sowars. The Kabuli and Herati troops were quarrelling as to which should leave the city first, neither wishing to do so; the Kabulis fearing that the Heratis would not follow, and the latter declining to leave their families at the mercy of the Kabulis.

THE OPIUM TRADE

SIR FRANK SOUTER has left for the Neilgherries on a month's leave.

MAJOR KARSLAKE, of the 83rd Foot, has been appointed to act as Assistant-Quarter-Master General, Mhow Division, during the absence of Major Colvin on field service.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR has taken a house at Panchganny to which he and his family will retire upon the rains setting in at Mahableshwur. His Excellency will go to Poona later on.

MR. WALTER SCOTT, C. E., the able Superintendent of the Bombay Gas Works, left in the mail steamer on Saturday, on three months' furlough to Europe. It speaks well for the Bombay climate that for the eight years of his service here Mr. Scott was but for one night out of this city and he enjoyed rude health the whole time.

THE guard of honour of 100 rank and file with band and colours, furnished by the 13th Regiment N. I., left Mhow for Khundwa by the mixed train on the 2nd instant, under the command of Captain Laing. His Highness the Maharaja Holkar has also gone to Khundwa with his retinue to meet the new Viceroy there. The noble Marquis stops at Khundwa for 12 hours as His Highness' guest.

THE directors of the Bank of Bengal at their meeting on Thursday reduced the rates of interest and discount one per cent. all round.

IT is stated that Mr. Monteath, C. S. I., the Director General of the Post Office of India, retires in August next, and that Mr. Fred. Hogg will replace him.

As far as we (Indian Tea Gazette) have been able to ascertain, we estimate the production of Indian tea this season at 46 million pounds should no specially adverse climatic influences supervene.

THE head-quarters of Mr. Izat's office, Engineer-in-Chief of Kathiwar, is Bhownuggur. Mr. Dallas has been appointed his personal assistant. Mr. Izat is still in charge of the Dhond and Manmar State Railway.

IN reference to the "notes from Igatpuri," which were published in our issue of the 29th ult., we are requested to state that Dr. O. Sullivan was not in Igatpuri when Major Wilson had his collar bone broken.

COUNTERMANDING orders have been issued to the 5th Infantry H. C. and 3rd Cavalry H. C. who, since January and April last, respectively, have been waiting for "further orders" in the expectation of proceeding to the frontier.

OWING to the rain there was a serious landslip near Khandalla on Thursday evening last shortly before the train in which H. E. the Governor was going to Poona went past. The line was cleared in a very short time by the energy of the local railway authorities.

THE wing of the 4th Cavalry (Colonel Hall) left Mominabad on the 1st instant from Aurangabad, their head-quarters. This wing was sent with all speed to relieve the 3rd Cavalry H. C. The 2nd Infantry H. C., doing duty at Jhansi, will also return to Ellichpur. The 5th Infantry H. C. proceeds from Akola to their station, Hingoli.

NOTWITHSTANDING the nature of the rules under the Burma Land Revenue Act, there is a rapid extension of rice cultivation in the province, some 200,000 acres having recently been added to the area under it. The splendid alluvial fields of the province will in time, no doubt, make it the granary of the East, and as over twenty kinds of paddy are raised by cultivators, there cannot be much difficulty in suiting the most fastidious market.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Statesman, writing from Simla, says :—"The Government, it would appear, have at length awakened to the necessity of putting down the barefaced gambling which is going on at Umballa with reference to the Derby and other sweeps. The Government of India have requested the active interference of the Punjab Government in putting down these lottery schemes at Umballa, and I suspect that Messrs. Simpkin and Co. must cease to send their circulars out to the public in future."

THE Madras Mail observes that lollipops must be presumed to have something to do with loyalty in this country, for we learn from the orders of the Poona garrison "that the customary sweetmeat money for Her Majesty's birthday will be issued to the troops." Was there a parade of troops in garrison on that day in Poona, and did the officers go about their functions with sugar-stuff in their mouths, and wore the rank and file permitted to perform manœuvres while actively employed in reducing brandy balls, or acidulated drops to vanishing points? The order we have quoted is an additional and a pleasing proof of the grand paternal character of the Government of the Bombay Presidency.

A KEENLY grateful people they are, the community of Ahmedabad. They are now busily engaged, as witness the local papers, in giving expression to their deep sense of the exertions of one Mr. Cowasjee Muncherjee Karanjawala, a fellow-citizen, for the relief of the sufferers by the floods which swept over Ahmedabad just five years ago. The "object of the address," which is a lengthy document and in which the gratitude of the Ahmedabadites finds eloquent expression, "is not to enumerate his services, but to record the appreciation of them." We are prevented from participating in the admiration which the services have evoked; but surely they must be of a very much higher order than those of Mr. Tracy Turnerelli to the Tory party, considering that at last they came to be recognized at no remoter period than five years after date.

THE account of the foreign trade of Bengal for the year 1879-80, just published by the Custom House authorities, hardly justifies a very gloomy view of the future of Indian Commerce. Not only do the totals of imports and exports of merchandise show an increase bringing them up nearly to the maximum reached in 1877-78, but an examination of the individual items comprised in them discloses ground for a favourable forecast. The total value of merchandise imported from abroad was Rs. 18,64,40,947, as compared with Rs. 16,58,47,943 in the previous year; Rs. 19,36,25,769 in 1877-78; Rs. 16,66,74,247 in 1876-77; and Rs. 17,73,98,820 in 1875-76; while that of merchandise exported to other countries was Rs. 29,67,70,336, compared with Rs. 28,80,64,311 in the previous year; Rs. 30,99,69,884 in 1877-78; Rs. 26 45,34,814 in 1876-77, and Rs. 23,55,74,690 in 1875-76. It will be seen from these figures that the growth of exports during the five years has been much more marked than that of imports, and there is every indication that this will continue to be the case; so that, however this circumstance may be regarded from an economic point of view, the augury as regards the future of exchange is distinctly favourable.

THE London military correspondent of the Pioneer writes :—The selection of Colonel "Chinese" Gordon as Private Secretary has given rise to much comment. In certain ways he is not only a gallant soldier, but a great man; but his merits are hardly of the character that suit his position about Lord Ripon. Colonel Gordon is brusque and eccentric in his ways, he is no respector of persons, and cannot stand humbug. Are these the qualities that most become a Private Secretary? To the list of those who refused the place is added the name of Colonel Godfrey Clerk, of the 3rd Battalion Rifle Brigade. The difficulty in accounting for so many refusals of the office is more apparent than real. I suspect it was found that the way in which Sir George Colley exercised his functions was found inconvenient to the Commander-in-Chief in India. By his influence with the "late-present" Viceroy Sir George virtually put aside Sir F. Haines in all matters of patronage. Whatever advantages may have attended this state of things as regards the operations in Afghanistan, it is felt to be bad as a precedent, and the new holder of the place is to be simply what its title implies, and no more. Hence I take it the reluctance to accept it in the part of several men holding good positions at home.

THE cause of widow remarriage among the Hindoos of Gujarat is apparently growing hopeless. An Ahmedabad paper in the reforming line is actually rejoicing at the increase in the number of infant widows, which is stated to have occurred to a large extent within the last twelve months, in the desperate belief that if the evil gets unendurable,—and not till then,—the remedy will be applied. Of all castes of Hindoos, the Nagars are reputed to be the most orthodox, that is, most stolid in this matter. The Nagars of Nowanagar and Bhaunagar have among these numbers of poor girls who are condemned by a savage custom to the rigours of Hindoo widowhood, and recently within a short time some children of a very tender age lost their "husbands" at Joonagur. This excites the Gujarati writer's wrath considerably at the cruel indifference of the Nagars in not remedying an evil which is the bane of their womankind. The writer is convinced that it is useless to hope for any reform from the Nagars of Nowanagar and Bhaunagar whom nothing could induce to a right thinking on the subject; but from those of Joonagur, who are supposed to be less hard-hearted, he has something left to hope, especially after the recent increase in the number of widows. It is refreshing to find our Hindoo reformers having recourse, as their courage abates, to philosophy of that high minded order which "finds in loss a gain to match."

A PRELIMINARY concession has been granted by the German Government for the construction of a ship canal from the Baltic to the North Sea, the termini being at Brunsbuttel and Kiel respectively. It will be capable of allowing the passage of the heaviest German ironclads, and the work could, it is estimated, be completed in about six years, at a cost of less than four millions sterling.

THE WUDWAN COTTON MARKET.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The statistics given by the Wudwan cotton inspector, and published in your issue of the 29th May, are interesting in themselves and from the inferences they suggest.

During the seven days of May, from the 16th to the 23rd, three thousand eight hundred and sixty-five candies of cotton passed through the Wudwan station registration office compound by courtesy called a market.

Where did this cotton come from, with what object did it find its way to the Wudwan camp registration compound, and how comes it that the inspector of cotton has such accurate figures to present to the public?

(1). This cotton is supplied by Drangedra, Hulwud, Moorvee, Wankaneer, Jutwad, Dorajee, and south-west growths, Tull, Wudwan, Limree, Rampore, and Dhollera.

Dhollera has supplied a fair quantity this season of both European and native cotton owing to the Bombay insurance firms closing their risks on the 15th and the high premiums (4½ per cent) asked by natives after that date.

(2). The object for which the whole of this cotton is to be found in the Wudwan camp is because there the B. B. and C. I. has its terminal station, and thence all Kathiwar cotton not going by water finds its way to Bombay.

(3). The accuracy of the inspector's figures are beyond controversy, because all cotton of whatever kind or in whatsoever form packed must pass through the Wudwan (market) registration compound and must pay there, before it can enter the railway station limits, a transit duty of annas ten per candy.

The cotton may be bought and pressed at Dhollera or Limree or Wudwan. It may be forwarded by Whittle and Co. or Graham and Co., or Gaddum and Co., or by any native; all alike must pass their cotton through the camp Registration compound and must there pay the ten annas transit duty or their cotton cannot leave the Wudwan station.

The cotton may rot under the nose of the inspector, but until he has passed it through his office, collected his tax, and abstracted by way of sample some four pounds of cotton per dokra, there is no possible chance of the cotton being allowed to continue its journey to Bombay.

This registration office, under the plea of a public purpose, viz, for the benefit of the public, was originally started as a market, but as it has not yet realized the original intention of its founders, though it has been in existence for many years, it has assumed its proper position and become a simple nakra, whereat transit duties are collected for the benefit of those whom it may concern. I have, however, given it the more honourable title of a registration office and the cotton inspector the more appropriate name of registrar.

At the commencement of this letter I said that the statistics given by the registrar or cotton inspector were interesting in themselves and interesting from the inferences they suggested. First, interesting in themselves as showing how in the districts business men are purposelessly looted to meet the whims of men who happen to have temporary authority.

The dates given in the registrar's letter show that three thousand eight hundred and sixty-five candies of cotton passed through his office during the 7th of May from the 16th to the 23rd, and therefore that the transit duties at 10 annas per candy imposed on that amount of business covered Rs. 2,415-10. In other words, that during seven days the trade was looted in the Wudwan camp to the extent of Rs. 2,415-10. If we suppose that this volume of trade is continued in a fair season for four months or say 17 weeks, it would follow that the trade is mulcted to the extent of Rs. 41,065-10 in the Wudwan camp alone; add to this value of cotton abstracted from each dokra, the total would touch Rs. 80,000.

The plea for this fearful exaction is a public purpose.

If, therefore, the registrar of the Wudwan cotton registration compound would continue his statistics and let the public know in what way this money is dispensed for their benefit, would point out the difference between a private, a local, and a public purpose, and show how Messrs. Graham and Co., of Limree, Messrs. Wittle and Co., of Dhollera, the one thousand and one natives who are forced by the current of trade to send their cotton via Wudwan, and Messrs. Gaddum and Co., of Wudwan itself, are in the slightest degree benefitted by the registration office or its officers or by anybody connected with the registration arrangements misnamed trade facilities, I for one shall be gratefully obliged.

The serious inference to be drawn from the facts as above laid bare is this.

Why should not Veerumgaum impose a transit duty on cotton passing through the station compound there? Why should not Ahmedabad do the same? Why should Baroda, Broach, and Surat not follow suit.

There is certainly no objection to their taking action in the matter, and as the principle of transit duties is admitted in Wudwan, it cannot be denied to any recognised and properly constituted municipality seeking to impose them.

I offer this as a suggestion to the towns above named. Seek under the plea of a public purpose permission to throw across the railway line a simple archway; after its erection declare it a market and impose a transit duty of 10 annas, a rupee, or even two rupees per candy on all cotton passing under it. The public will pay the demand seeing therein their advantage, and dealers in the future who send cotton from the district will be thankful if allowed to take away their tares in Bombay, leaving their cotton for the benefit of the town through which it has had the honour of passing.

THE ADDRESS TO THE VICEROY.

IN our report of the proceedings connected with the presentation of the address from the Municipality to the Marquis of Ripon on Tuesday last, it was stated that the Chairman (Rao Saheb Vishvanath Narayan Mandlik, C. S. I.) "presented the native members of the Corporation" to his Lordship. This was an error. By desire of the noble lord, the Chairman presented the members of the Town Council only; the members of the Corporation were not presented.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.

ON Saturday night last Miss Clara Stanley took her grand farewell benefit at the above theatre, and in spite of the weather, there was a good house. The programme for the occasion was divided into two parts. The first part consisted of varieties, and then followed Herve's celebrated extravaganza, in three acts, entitled "Chilperic." After the first part of the entertainment had been gone through, owing to some defect in the roofing of the theatre, the heavy downpour of rain caused leakages in several parts of the building much to the inconvenience and discomfort of the audience. This increased to such an extent that the water rushed in a torrent into the private boxes and from thence on to the seats below. This created quit a panic amongst the audience, and within a minute or two they had all quitted their seats. The water also ran over the stage, several portions of which were saturated. The water in the dressing room of the performers was ankle deep. Several of the audience left the theatre, believing that the remainder of the performance, could not be gone through. However, after an interval of 30 or 40 minutes, the curtain rose for the performance of the second portion of the programme. Considering the awkward position the performers were placed in, they had success in their undertaking. Mr. J. B. Farrell as Chilperic, king of the Gauls, and Miss Clara Stanley as Fredegonda secured the approbation of the audience, as also did Miss Lizzie Wilson as Galswindar, a Spanish princess. At the fall of the curtain at the closing scene, Mr. Dave Carson stepped forward on the stage and addressed the audience, stating that Miss Clara Stanley desired to return thanks to them for the kindness bestowed upon her by their remaining under the discomfort caused by the defective state of the building. We see by an advertisement in another column that the proprietor of the theatre has promised to immediately make the building weather-proof. This certainly ought to have been done before.

WEATHER REPORT.

SIMLA, June 1.—The slight rise of the barometer, which yesterday was reported only from Bengal, has now extended all over Northern and Central India; and only in Madras and on the west coast of the Bay has there been a slight further fall, almost insignificant in amount. The greatest rise is at Rangoon (0·08"), where the monsoon is reported to have set in, and at Lahore (0·07"); but in general it does not exceed 0·03" or 0·04". The distribution of pressure is, therefore, not greatly altered. The winds are cyclonic round the north coast of the Bay; and though light at Saugor Island and False Point, they may be taken as indicating bad weather in the northern part of the Bay in the latitude of Rangoon. The temperature is rather high in the Punjab and at Agra, somewhat less so in the North-Western Provinces; but the changes since yesterday are small. Hot winds are reported from Rajkot, Ajmere, and Bareilly; and in general the weather is fine, but sultry. There is rain in Burmah and on the Arakan coast, and a few light showers in Bengal and at Baneres. Bangalore and Cochin each report 8-tenths of rain.

MR. WEDDERBURN'S LETTERS.

MR. WEDDERBURN'S communication on the Permanent Settlement question has elicited some public criticism. The first of the critics is "F." who sees no way of escape for the Deccan ryot except "lighter taxation and cheap and ready justice." The other is "P. J." clever and pungent, who bears a grudge against all "politically inspired legislators," and objects to anything like the blending of the western with the eastern system of land assessment. "P. J." wants the revenue system to have a fair trial and he wants the collector to be a hybrid——munsif-mamlatdar. "A. D." is another of Mr. Wedderburn's critics. "A. D." has no love for the sowkar, whom he calls thief——born, cradled, suckled and bred.' Poor Marwari! Yet another; and this is "E. T. C." "E. T. C.," we know, possesses large experience and a sound judicial faculty. He has studied the various methods of assessment, native and European, and his opinions are entitled to respect. We wait for Mr. Wedderburn's rejoinder with much interest.—Indian Spectator.

THE remaining two instalments of Mr. W. Wedderburn's essay entitled "a Permanent Settlement for the Dekkan" to which we referred a fortnight ago duly appeared in the Bombay Gazette. There are three problems, in the opinion of the author, connected with agriculture in this presidency, awaiting solution. These are :—1st, how to reduce the present responsibility of the ryot—which he has shown himself quite unable to meet—by "adopting the assessment of the land revenue to the variations of the seasons;" 2ndly, how to keep the money lender in his proper relation to the ryot; and 3rdly, how to secure for the State, a safe and increasing revenue. All these questions are sought to be answered in the scheme which Mr. Wedderburn proposes. But his scheme Mr. Wedderburn hopes to secure—for the ryot a relief from his present burdens and a stimulus to new exertions; for the capitalist, a safe and profitable investment; and for the State, an increasing revenue, not subject to reduction by the vagaries of exchange or famine. These well thought out proposals are, we know, the result of long careful observation and cogitation. It is plain that Mr. Wedderburn has earned the gratitude of every friend of India, by the pains he has taken in developing this comprehensive scheme of agrarian reform. We must defer to some other time any comments on it that may be called for.—Bombay Review.

COLONEL GORDON'S RESIGNATION.

ONE disappointment has already been the fate of His Excellency the Viceroy. The gentleman whom he had invited to be his Private Secretary, and who had accepted the invitation and had accompanied His Excellency to Bombay in the capacity of Private Secretary, has withdrawn from the service he had voluntarily undertaken, leaving the new Viceroy in a difficulty that may give him considerable anxiety. Our sympathies are altogether with the Viceroy, who has been so grossly disappointed in the return of mutual confidence which he had a right to expect from a veteran soldier, such as Colonel Gordon is.—Bombay Catholic Examiner.

THE only untoward circumstance which has marred the effects of the good opinion created by Earl Ripon in Bombay, has been the resignation of his Private Secretary, Colonel Gordon. When the appointment was announced it gave universal satisfaction, and the Indian public thought that the Colonel would add strength to the administrative abilities of the Viceroy and break up the official ring at Simla. But that he should resign almost immediately on landing has struck every body as something which needs satisfactory explanation. In his letter Colonel Gordon merely uses some complimentary phrases towards the new Viceroy, but does not say why he resigned his post. The oriental proverb says that there is no room for two Sultans in one and the same country, nor for two swords in one scabbard; this is perhaps one reason of Colonel Gordon's resignation, and the other is, that both he and the Viceroy happen to be men of strong religious convictions, which are antagonistic. Can such really be the case?—Native Opinion.

MOST Anglo-Indians will marvel at the language of Colonel Gordon's self-denying ordinance—the letter in which he states his intention of giving up the Private Secretaryship to the Viceroy. But his acceptance of the office was almost as strange as his present resignation, complicated though that is by references to Divine Providence, which, though characteristic of the man, have gone out of fashion somewhat since the time of the Puritans. Colonel Gordon would be more at home in the Soudan, where he was a king, or in China, where he was a General, than in the Private Secretary's room in Government House. There, his undoubted talents would have been wasted; and it is better, both for his reputation and for the interests of the public, that even at the eleventh hour he should give up an appointment for which he is unfitted. One may add that such letters as the one given in our telegram would, if received frequently, rather embarrass the officials with whom the Private Secretary has to correspond.—Pioneer.

WE need no other evidence than that afforded by his short letter to the Bombay papers to convince us that Colonel "Chinese" Gordon should never have accepted the appointment of Private Secretary to the new Viceroy. He anticipates, and attempts to disarm criticism by putting this question "to my critics,"—"Have they never themselves realised what it is to make a mistake?" But though it seems to be conscious that their judgment is prone to err in the most provoking manner with regard to the greatest as well as to the least concerns of this chequered life of ours, there is a general agreement with the assertion of the highest possible authority, regarding the unfitness of him who, "having put his hand to the plough, looks back." There is a twang about the letter which is peculiarly repellent to most people, and this alone will satisfy the Indian public that, however distinguished his career has hitherto been, Colonel Gordon would have been out of place in the position that he had accepted on Lord Ripon's staff. The Colonel almost accuses Providence of having warped his judgment.—Madras Mail.

THE letter in which the downright and intrepid is now to be composed of H.M. 31st Foot, 6th regiment Native Infantry, two risalahs of 3rd Irregular Horse, three guns of Foot Artillery, and is to be commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Bolton, of the 31st regiment. Bolton as appointed Brevet-Major Urmston his Brigade Major.

10th.—We crossed the Sutlej over a boat bridge, and advanced into the Punjaub. The river is about 400 yards broad, and is a fine looking stream We are here joined by a Sikh escort, commanded by a Sikh colonel, who is to accompany us through the Punjaub, and assist in procuring forage, carriage, &c., and to settle disputes along the road. I visited his camp, and found his people civil but very inquisitive. They examined my dress, and asked me all sorts of questions.

At Ferozepore we were served out with white cap covers, padded with cotton, which we found a great improvement on the black oil skin cap covers which we had always worn on the march up to this time, and which used to get frightfully hot and uncomfortable in the mornings after the sun rose.

The white cap covers had a curtain behind to keep the sun off the back of the head.

The 31st marched out of Ferozepore on the 10th March with nearly 800 bayonets, and the following officers, viz :—

Lieut.-Colonel S. Bolton.	Lieutenant T. Bourke.
Major T. Skinner.	Lieutenant J. A. Duncan.
Major Von Orlandt.	Lieutenant J. Greenwood.
Brevet-Major C. Shaw.	Lieutenant G. Shaw.
Brevet-Major R. Urmston.	Lieutenant T. H. Flasket.
Captain G. C. Marshall.	Lieutenant E. W. Bray.
Captain G. Baldwin.	Ensign W. W. Atty.
Captain W. G. Willes.	Ensign J. R. Pollard.
Captain G. D. Young.	Ensign H. Hart.
Lieutenant T. Pender.	Ensign R. Law.
Lieutenant E. Lingard.	Ensign Tytler.
Lieutenant R. J. Egar.	Paymaster Matthew's,
Lieutenant J. C. Brooke.	Quartermaster Bennison.
Lieutenant & Adjt.	Surgeon A. Hart.
Lieutenant D. McIlveen.

11th.—To Kassoor, and ancient place. There is a fort here, built of masonry and surrounded by a deep narrow ditch. They would not allow us to enter the gates, and all through the Punjaub we found the Sikhs jealous of our entering their forts and cities. This fort they would not allow us to enter on any pretence.

12th.—To Lullianee. A great many of the camel drivers carried off their camels to-day, and tried to give us the slip. Consequently, when we marched in the morning, a large quantity of baggage had to be left on the ground with the rear guard. The camels were afterwards found concealed within the walls of the town.

We buried the first man after crossing the Sutlej; he belonged to my company, and was the first man I had seen buried without a coffin.

The name of the Sikh colonel who commands our escort is Chate Sing.

The country passed through the last two days was very wild.

14th.—Gingbatty. This morning was very cold. Early, about day-break, I was riding alone some distance in front of the column, when, on entering a village, I found myself in the middle of a tremendous row between the villagers and the Irregular Horse, who were charging amongst them with drawn swords, and the villagers striking at them with sticks and poles. I was nearly unhorsed by a fellow who charged at me with an iron-bound stick, with which he struck my horse over the head and crupper.

Just as we were beginning to be hard pressed, and thinking seriously of using our swords, the 31st Band came on the scene, and the tide of battle was turned in our favour, and the villagers all bolted, pursued by the soldiers, who thrashed a lot of them, and brought those they caught armed on to the camping ground, and handed them over to the Sikh colonel, who, after, inquiry, had them severely punished. But I believe the fact was that our camp-followers had been trying to rob the village, and they were merely defending their property.

15th. We arrived at Rungelpore on the Ravee. The river was not fordable at this time of the year, and we found about twenty-five boats of different sizes, collected for us. The river was about the same width as the Sutlej.

The 3rd Irregular Horse crossed in the afternoon. On the 16th we were occupied all day with strong fatigue parties crossing over the commissariat, artillery, and treasure.

The 31st Foot crossed early on the morning of the 16th, but in consequence of the immense trouble given by the camels, which had all to be passed over in boats, it took us the whole day to get over our camp.

The 3rd troop, 3rd brigade Horse Artillery, arrived to-day to join us, and were ordered to keep the march in our rear.

16th.—Dingha. We made a forced march of twenty-two miles to-day to make up for lost time. It was very hot and dusty, and most of the men were knocked up. To-day we were only eight coss west of Lahore, the capital of the Punjaub.

We continued to press on as fast as possible, as we were urged by General Pollock, who had taken command of the troops assembling at Peshawur, to march with all speed to assist in forcing the Khyber pass p.ss.

24th — rrived at Ramnuggur, a large walled town, three miles from the river Chenaub. We did not pitch our tents, but sent them on with the strong fatigue party to cross; and about noon, after the men had breakfasted, we marched down to the river and crossed over. We found the river broad and rapid; but we had thirty good boats and made good progress.

We got the treasure tumbrils and all the 31st baggage over by sunset. I was on the last fatigue party that day.

The Chenâb is the Accesines of the Greeks.

The next day the Artillery and 6th Native Infantry crossed, and we continued our march the day after.

The distance from the Chenab to the Jhelum is 44½ miles. On the 27th we were encamped at Koree, from which we had a beautiful view of the mountains of Cashmere.

Three miles from Koree encampment, we passed over a low range of sandhills, from the top of which the view was beautiful; to the north flowed the Jhelum, winding between two ranges of hills. To the south was still visible the Chenâb, and to the north-east appeared the majestic mountains of the Himalayah covered with snow.

We found the Jhelum, on our arrival on its banks on the 29th, a broad and rapid river, the current running at the rate of about five miles per hour. In December it is for dable near the town of Jhelum, which stands on the right bank.

In consequence of the rapidity of the stream, and the small number of boats available, the column was two days in crossing. We now left the treasure in charge of the 6th Native Infantry to come on after us, and pressed forward to join General Pollock.

On our arrival at Tumiac on the 2nd April, we received intelligence from Peshawur that the Commanding general could not wait for us any longer, and that he intended to force the Khyber on the 5th instant. In consequence of this unpleasant news, we halted here three days, to allow the 6th regiment Native Infantry to close up with the treasure.

7th.—Mankyala Tope. We hear to-day that General Pollock forced the Khyber pass on the 5th, had defeated the enemy, and that he had pushed on to the relief of Jellalabad. His force consisted of Her Majesty's 3rd Light Dragoons, 1st and 9th regiments Light Cavalry, Her Majesty's 9th Foot, six regiments Benrogal Native Infantry, and a proportion of artillery.

In the attack and forcing of the Khyber, General Pollock lost, killed and wounded, 135 officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates; a small loss considering the opposition made by the Afghans.

The Tope of Mankyala is one of the most incomprehensible looking building. It is domeshaped—built of stone—about 70 feet high, and 150 paces in circumference. It is flat at the top, and it has a square shaft through the centre of it. There are steps to the top. By the habitants of this part of the country it is called the Tope or Mound, and it is supposed to be the tomb of Alexander the Great's horse, Bucephalus.

Ancient coins, mostly Greek, were brought into camp for sale.

Near this place we were much suprised by a great number of beggars men, women, and children, following the column, and asking alms in the name of Esaw (Jesus).

They appeared to be a tribe of gipsies, and were very ragged and miserable-looking.

At Hoormuck. We heard that, on the 7th of April, the garrison of Jellalabad, commanded by Major-General Sir Robert Sale, sallied out in three columns and attacked and completely routed Ackbar Khan and his army, by whom they had been besieged for more than two months. Sir R. Sale burnt the enemy's camp and retired into the fort again.

The garrison had only seventy-one killed and wounded in the action.

For the gallant defence of Jellalabad, the garrison received a medal and six months batta, and they were styled by Earl Ell nborough the Governor-General, the "Illustrious Garrison."

Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry had the honourable distinction of "Prince Albert's Own," conferred on them for their distinguished valour.

Attock 16th.—Arrived at Attock. We have had an immensity of trouble during the past week, in consequence of our camel men deserting and carrying off their camels. On several occasions we have had to leave a quantity of baggage lying on the ground when we marched, which was brought on with great difficulty after us.

We found a bridge of boats on the Indus. It is extremely rapid and deep, the sides of the river being lined with a black kind of stone, quite polished by the action of the current.

The fort of Attock is on the east bank of the river; it is built of stone, and the river washes its walls. Although it looks formidable, it is commanded by a hill on its own side of the river.

We saw here for the first time, men swimming across the rapid river on inflated skins of oxen; they swam with the greatest ease, and with very little effort. We find that they can float very long distances down the river on these skins.

Attock fort was built in 1581 by the Emperor Akbar. The town is within the walls of the fort. The Indus being the boundary of India, after we crossed it the Sepoys received extra batta.

It took our brigade two days to get across the Indus, as the ghaut was very narrow and bad; only one loaded animal could pass at a time.

The country between Attock and Peshawur was generally wild, flat, and uninteresting.

At Akora we encamped for the first time on the banks of the Kabul river, which was very rapid,—not very wide.

Peshawur, 21st April.—Encamped close to the city, which is in lat. 34° 6 N., long. 71° 13 E., and it is placed in a large plain, nearly circular, bounded by hills. The city is large, being nearly five miles in circumference, and surrounded by a high mud wall. The inhabitants are principally Affghans, as all the country between the Indus and the Khyber originally belonged to Afghanistan, and was only conquered in the time of Runjeet Sing. On the west side of the city is a large garden, called the Wuzeer Bang; in it lived all the Europeans now at Peshawur, consisting of all the sick depôts left behind by General Pollock. All the stores were also kept here. Captain Henry Lawrence, afterwards the famous Sir Henry Lawrence of Lucknow, was in charge.
